

16. Ryan, Harris
Virginia

S. 38347

Harris Ryan on 4 February 1834 claimed a pension as a result of his service in the Revolutionary war as a private soldier. The pension was granted.

He was born 4 November 1764 in Amherst County, Virginia where he resided until the outbreak of the Revolution. He enlisted in 1779 in a company of Virginia foot soldiers under Captain John Morrison in a Regiment under Colonel John Pope. He served for six months. After his discharge he first settled in Wilkes County, Georgia, and then in Campbell County, Tennessee. He later moved to Rhoads County in the State of Tennessee where he was at the time he claimed his pension in 1834.

In his neighborhood in Tennessee lived Charles Ryan who made an affidavit in support of Harris Ryan's claim. No relationship to the claimant is stated however.

In March 1843 his pension was still being paid. At this time he lived in McCracken County, Kentucky and he stated in his affidavit that his wife (name not given) had died and he was living with his youngest daughter, Unity, wife of George Brunnet.
no other detail given.
