20. Ryan, Rufus
New York.

R. 9121

This man's claim for pension was rejected, apparently for insufficient length of service.

He stated that he was born 10 October 1751 in Kinderhook in the County of Columbia, New York; that he resided in Kinderhook until 1774 when he removed to Cotsackie in Green County when he moved to Coeymans until 1811 after which he moved to New Baltimore, Greene County, New York where he was still living in 1832 when he made his claim.

He claimed that he was recruited in local militia and at one time was one of

The guards of General Gates.
He gives considerable detail of minor actions over a period of several years duty in the Catskill area.

He signed his name Ruff Ryan
